About us:

Pantanal Nature is an officially registered ecotourism agency based in Cuiabá, the state capital of Mato Grosso which lies at the gateway to the northern Pantanal in Brazil. Our aim is to give you an unforgettable experience in one of the world's most stunning locations. Our expertise is founded on a lifetime's experience of guiding tours and expeditions throughout the Pantanal.

American Wood Stork

Paraguayan Caiman

Capuchin Monkey

We offer a professional service for those wishing to explore the vast wilderness of the Pantanal, Nobres and Chapada dos Guimarães through a variety of different activities. While typically each expedition begins in Cuiabá, Pantanal Nature prides itself on its in-depth knowledge of the region. This allows us to customize our tours to suit our guests' requirements, whilst taking into account the ever changing local conditions.

Blue-crowned Parakeet

Crested Cara-cara

Ringed Kingfisher

Jabiru

We will design a comprehensive itinerary for you, based on your needs. We will arrange accommodation, a bilingual guide, transport or whatever else you require, leaving you to enjoy the scenic beauty and wildlife without the headache of co-ordinating travel arrangements or locating accommodation in far flung places. Just take advantage of our experience and make the most of our established, reliable and professional network, while you discover this fascinating and enchanting area of Brazil.
